MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 3rd November 1954

SUBJECT.—Dock-strike in the United Kingdom—Extension of licences.

No. 97-I.T.C.(P.N.)/54.—It has been decided by Government that all licences which expire (including the period of grace), during the currency of the Dock Yard-strike in the United Kingdom will be automatically alid to cover shipments made upto 15th December, 1954.

2. No formal revalidation of the licences will be necessary. The Customs Authorities will allow clearance against all licences which expire during the dock-yard strike in the United Kingdom, provided the Importers produce a certificate from their foreign suppliers/or shippers to the effect that the goods in question would have been shipped during the validity of their licences but for the strike.

It may be noted that the normal period of grace will not be allowed in the case of such licences; and no letters of credit should be opened during this period of extension.

S. N. BILGRAMI,

Chief Controller of Imports and Exports.
